“ The American soprano Marquita Lister makes a strong impression in the role of Floria Tosca. She has a beautiful richly coloured and dramatically expressive voice of great power that commands attention and dominates any passage in which she participates.” Vancouver Sun (Vancouver, Canada)

“ Lister’s voice only flowered larger and more seductive as the opera progressed. The distilled concentration of her “Vissi d’arte” stopped the show.” The Detroit News (Detroit, Michigan)

“ Marquita Lister was an especially sensual creation, delightfully flirtatious and disturbingly jealous. By the time “Vissi d’arte” rolled around she was in full throttle and she picked off her high notes with expressive ease.” The Detroit Free Press (Detroit, Michigan)

“ Marquita Lister is a fine singer with the spirit to match up with tenor Marcello Giordani’s appealing Cavaradossi and the poise to hold her own with baritone Justino Diaz’s polished Scarpia.” The Detroit News (Detroit, Michigan)
